The screenshot shows the homepage of Light Specter Film. The background is a wide-angle photograph of the Miami skyline across a body of water. The website has a dark, semi-transparent overlay. In the top left corner is the company logo. The top right corner contains a navigation menu with links for Residential, Commercial, Videos, Contact, and a prominent blue button for 'Discovery Call'. Below the navigation, the text 'ARCHITECTURAL FILMMAKING · FLORIDA' is centered. The main headline, 'Where architecture becomes cinema.', is displayed in a large, white serif font. Below the headline, a paragraph describes the company's focus on luxury visual experiences for builders and architects. At the bottom, there are two white buttons: 'Schedule a Discovery Call →' and 'View Our Work'.
